Senator Gore Calls on Root and Burton for Declaration.

PROTESTS INDORSEMENT

New York Member Declares Advocacy of Oklahoma Solon Would Harm Presidential Chances.

A stirring colloquy in the Senate yesterday afternoon between Senator Root and Senator Gore elicited from Mr. Root some sharp comment on the subject of caucus rule and presidential booms. Senator Burton had been speaking and Senator Root had made some observaons on the subject of the caucus, when enator Gore interrupted: "I wish to ask the Senator from New York," said Senator Gore, "whether he hinks a party caucus ought or ought not to hind its participants."

"I think," replied Senator Root, "that to be bound by a caucus resolution adopted in advance of the discussion of a measure in this body is to be faise to cordance with the judgment he forms upon the arguments that are presented to the legislative body to which he belongs. my agreement made before hand by high Senators of the United States bind hemselves not to consider, not to keep n open mind to arguments that are unde upon the merits of a measure, not b vote in accordance with their individjudgment, is a violation of their is an abandonment and a negation constitutional government of the nited States and the substitution for of an extra-constitutional and uncon-titutional method of government." Root Gets "Apology."

"I appreciate the lofty sentiments of the Senator," replied Mr. Gore. "I now sire to ask him if he thinks that the National Republican Convention at Chi-cago, over which he presided, ought or ought not to have bound the participants ought not to have bound the participants in that convention."

"No declaration of a party platform," replied Mr. Root, "can absolve a man who, before or after he takes an oath of office to act as a member of the great-legislative council of the nation, from the duty to keep open-minded upon all questions that are brought before the body and to vote in accordance with the judgment that he forms upon the argusents that are presented in the discusions of the body. # A Special Sale of Reputable Makes of White Enamel and Brass Beds

As you know, the market is flooded with inferior makes of Beds. In their newness they make a presentable appearance—but when put to the test of service their quality-weakness is quickly manifested. While the Beds in this sale are offered at remarkably low prices, we want to emphasize as strongly as our reputation can—they are every single one of dependable manufacture. You can rely upon the integrity of their value. They are precisely what they look to be-high-class-and it's fortunate for you and us that such selling is possible.
